

Lutheran Association of Missionaries and Pilots U.S.
Christ's Kingdom. Every Native American Nation.

Rev. Dr. Don Johnson

Don, a member of the Makah Indian Tribe, has been the Executive Director of Lutheran Association of Missionaries and Pilots U.S. since 1994. Prior to serving with the ministry he was Pastor of Makah Lutheran Church in Neah Bay, Washington. During that time Pastor Johnson also served on the Makah Tribal Council, including five years as the Chairman. He received his Doctorate in Ministry in 2004 from Luther/Northwestern Seminary in St. Paul, Minnesota. One of only two ordained Native Americans actively serving in the Lutheran Church Missouri Synod, Reverend Johnson resides in Minnesota with his wife, Mary.
